Guests at Sandringham.

At the English royal castle of Sandringham it is customary to weigh every guest on his arrival, as well as on his departure. The weight is carefully entered in a book, and the person weighed must sign his name. As the custom has been observed there for more than 40 years, the book of signatures has obtained considerable dimensions. Among the many signatures the book contains there are many celebrated names. The signatures that most frequently recur are those of Hartington and Devonshire, the former and present names of the Duke of Devonshire, who, as is well known, has been the king's most intimate friend. Lord Salisbury, once weighed 250 pounds.

MINING NOTES.

The Leander Mining Co., of Crittenden county is negotiating for a large increase in mineral rights expecting to close a deal this week giving them three large mineral tracts. They are now operating a 24 foot vein, rich with lead and silver ore, and as spring opens up they expect to work it stronger than ever before. Mr. Chas. Hina the popular salesman with J. M. Stone & Bro. is interested in this rich mine and is very much elated over their bright prospects. Mr. Hina is a deserving citizen and nothing would give us more pleasure than to hear of the mine he is interested in proving a Klondike.

696

The Keystone Mining and Mineral Company of Crittenden county is preparing for greater things this spring than ever before. After to a great extent working on uncertainties in the past to fully demonstrate just what the earth had in store for them, costing a great deal of money and much uneasiness, they have at last been rewarded. In going to the great depth to find the immensely rich vein of lead ore, of which we have a sample they were to a great extent of course trusting to luck and the shaft was not perpendicular nor in any means such as would prove of sufficient capacity to handle what has been their exceeding good fortune to find, but now they are preparing to put down a perpendicular shaft that in every way will prove ample for all demands. Our good friend J. D. Hopewell who is cashier of the old reliable Bank of Sturgis, is one of the principal stock holders in this mine and his friends are complimenting him on his good fortune. We are not in the least jealous of the hidden treasures of our neighboring counties being unearthed. As great, big hearted, and whole souled people live in Crittenden as can be found on earth. Hence our congratulations at her prosperity.—Sturgis News Democrat.

Dangers of Pneumonia

A cold at this time, if neglected is liable to cause pneumonia which is so often fatal, and even when the patient has recovered the lungs are weakened, making them peculiarly susceptible to the development of consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar will soothe the cough, heal and strengthen the lungs and prevent pneumonia. LaGrosse coughs said quickly to the wonderful curative qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar. There is nothing else "just so good" as it.

Longing for Country Life.

A strange thing is the universal longing of professional men and others who have come to the city and have prospered as they advance in life to set back to the country. It is seldom that they do not return and when they do there is often disappointment and things do not appear as they did long ago. The change is in the man himself, but he thinks it is in the country. Nevertheless, the desire to get back to the old country place to end one's days is very general. Sir Walter Scott refers to it and compares the course of a man through the world to that of the hare which is started from her lair and after a long chase and making a large circle ends by returning to the nest from which she started.

$5,000
Reward

will be paid to any person who can find one atom of opium, chloral, morphine, cocaine, ether or chloroform or their derivatives in any of Dr. Miles' Remedies.

This reward is offered because certain unscrupulous persons make false statements about these remedies. It is understood that this reward applies only to goods purchased in the open market, which have not been tampered with.

Dr. Miles' remedies cure by their strengthening and invigorating effect upon the nervous system, and not by weakening the nerves.

"I consider that there are no better remedies put up than Dr. Miles' Nerve, Anti-Pain Pills, and Nerve and Liver Pills. We have used them for years, and recommend them to many others. My wife is using the Nerve, and considers it the best medicine in the world. A lady friend of mine, who was almost a total nervous wreck, through my earnest solicitation has used several bottles of the Nerve with wonderful results."

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails, he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.

AT BALTOFF'S STORE.

At eve when work has ceased its grind
And yielded respite to its knight,
Dame Pleasure beckons with her wand—
To check the mad world in its flight—
Then gather drowsily round the door
The "natives" at the village store!

They loaf upon deep-seated chairs,
Or balance nimbly on a box,
While others seek the curbstone perch
And rattle upon the rocks.
Then "Captain Boats" he gets the floor
And edifies the village store!

There's Clark and Jones, and Willie Brown,
And several molders from "the works";
The city marshal joins the bunch,
Likewise the grocer and his clerks.
Then "General" Wood he lets 'em soar
In front of Baltuff's village store!

There's food and coffee and bottled quips,
Portending jokes that have been sprung
To agitate some hapless wight,
At whom the javelin is flung—
For everything is known—and more—
Copyright.

About Vic Baltuff's village store:
Then Slack he bows the corn will fall,
Which prompts Old Grandad Burr to groan:
"The crop is lookin' mighty well,
For which we all the Lord should bless."
Then silence reprimands the bore
Who "saves things" at the village store!

The government is groomed and spanked
And made to stand up prim and straight:
"Judge" Haller, stopping for some plug,
Discusses "Buns" of town and state—
His honor rules on benches four,
Yet deigns to argue at the store.

They sit and spit and smoke their pipes,
Grave strategists and sparkling wits,
Some hit the cracks and others don't.
Yet every man he sits and spits—
While time floats to the other shore,
And darkness hides the village store.

Old grocery shop, we love you yet,
Mid palaces of stone and steel,
And some day we will sit and spit
Beside thy fragrant onion peel—
"Just resin" at the open door
Of that old, corner, village store.

BYRON WILLIAMS

GIT YO' GUN.

By Byron Williams.

What Ah know bee!
Dunno whar d' bees
Am a-makin' d' honey—
Dunno nuffin—
But dat ain' funny;
Cain' stan Nature
When she whispers a-sill,
Whike Ah do when
I hears mah fill
Gotta know how
An' t' have a sha'p ear
When d' winds dey whissh,
Ef yo' done gwine a-hear!
All of dem voices
Am a talkin' t' me!
Jes' lakke Ah lov' 'em
F'm infancy!

Johnny, git yo' gun,
An' come on t' d' woods!
Gotta git some eatin'
An' ret'n wit d' goods!

Summah's d' time
When to hunt am dne,
But Ah likes my coon
In d' wintah time!
Ah gits my gun
An' Ah hikes right out
Whar d' snow am deepes'
An' d' trees am stout;
An' Ah fills my gun
Frum my ol' cow's horn;
An' Ah gits Mister Coon,
Jes' as sure as yo' born!

Settin' heah a-dreamin'
Doan git no name!
Bettah rouse up
An' pu'se dat same;
Ef' Dinah'll be lookin'
F' somethin' t' cook,
En' Ah dun bettah hurry
Ef' Ah dun git shook!
Ah'd lakke t' sleep
Whar d' sun-flow' grow
Jes' sleep an' snooze
While d' sof' winds blow—
But I see gwine git huz
Ef' Ah doan hike soon,
For Ah gotta git game
Fo' d' light of d' moon!
